In the case that shareholders authorize a proxy holder to attend the meeting

Proxy Authorization Procedures

The Company submits the Proxy Form B to shareholders as specified by the Department of Business Development, the Ministry of Commerce. It is the form clearly indicating particulars for authorization in details. As a result, shareholders who are unable to attend the meeting in person can consider whether to grant proxy to any person or any independent director nominated by the Company. The details of directors nominated by the Company for shareholders to select the proxy holder are shown in Enclosure#6. The shareholders may appoint more than one proxy holder for convenience in the case that any proxy holders are unable to attend the meeting so other proxy holders can attend the meeting on their behalf. However, only one proxy holder can attend the meeting and cast a vote. The number of shares cannot be divided to many proxy holders in order to split the votes. In addition, to cast a vote in each agenda, shareholders are entitled to cast a vote for agreement, disagreement, or abstention.

However, the Company also provides a Proxy Form A, a simple and general proxy form, and a Proxy Form C, a proxy form that is used only in the case that a shareholder is a foreign investor and a custodian is designated in Thailand to supervise stocks, so that interested shareholders can print out information from the Company's website, www.supalai.com or scan QR code from the Registration Form.
